

Community Teach-In on Iraq

Introduction: Phyllis Aronson

9:30 am: After 9/11, After the Invasion of Iraq:
What Should US Policy Be?

Frank Richter (contributor, Detroit News),
Mel Small (Professor of History, Wayne State University),
Shea Howell (Professor of Communications, Oakland University)
Moderator: Steve Gold

11:00 am: The War in Iraq: What Is It Costing Us?

Noel Saleh (immigration attorney),
Deb Hammond (military wife),
Frank Thompson (Economist, University of Michigan),
Grace Boggs (author and community activist)
Moderator: Don Greenspon

Noon–1:30 pm LUNCH

1:30 pm: Morality and the War In Iraq: When Is It Right to Go to War?

Imam Hassan Qazwini (Islamic Center of America, Detroit),
Rev. Harry Cook (St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Clawson),
Rev. Dan Aldrich (Abbyssinian Interdenominational Church, Detroit)
Moderator: Melanie Goldberg

3:00 pm: How Can We Bring the War to an End?

Tom Hayden (Famed author and political activist)
Moderator: Rich Feldman

Huntington Woods Peace, Citizenship and Education Project

Co-Sponsors: Cranbrook Peace Foundation, Democratic Socialists of America (DSA),

The Green Party of Michigan; Supporting Organization: Peace Action of Michigan

Special Thanks to Rebecca Cherveney and Frederika Weisenthal, Rev. Linda Northcraft and

St. Johns Episcopal Church